Health Services Staffs Credit Union is committed to protecting the privacy and security of your personal data. This notice is so that we provide you with information around the use of your data when engaging with us through social media.

The use of social media by HSSCU does not in any way imply an endorsement of the relevant providers and/or their privacy policy. The ideas and views expressed by HSSCU on social media are for information purposes only. No communication through social media shall be deemed to constitute legal or official notice on behalf of HSSCU. We follow some social media channels, however, being followed by us does not imply an endorsement of any kind. We reserve the right to not reply individually to messages or comments received on social media.

The Data Protection Commissioner (the "DPC") has produced guidance to assist users in safeguarding their privacy when using social media. You can find this information here

The purposes for which we use your personal data

We use your personal data to assist it in carrying out the following:

- Communicate with and carry out requests from visitors to our social media channels;
- Understand how visitors are engaging with us via social media;
- Learn which posts or activities create the most engagement and from these interactions, develop relevant content and features likely to be interesting to our visitors
- Receive feedback on our products and services so we can work on improvements to these.
- To process competition entries through our social media channels We may ask competition winners to take part in promotional activity and to use their information in any publicity both online and in any other media. Further information is provided in the terms and conditions of each competition conducted via our social media channels.

Legal basis for processing of personal data

We operate social media channels so that we can present, inform, and interact with our members and other visitors interested in our services. This involves analysing in aggregated form the reach and use of our social media channels by such visitors. The legal basis for which we rely on to process personal data is our legitimate interests in optimising our engagement and communication of our business activities to our members and other interested parties.

Where it relates to Children

We will not process data (photos, videos of children at events for example) that relates to children under the age of 16 years unless we have the explicit consent of the appropriate adult.

We remind you that it is a public social network and so all posts and likes are public. You can find details about BlueSky Social's privacy policy at the following link. Bluesky is the controller of the personal information they process under this Privacy Notice. If you have any questions about their privacy practices or their Privacy Notice, or wish to exercise your privacy rights, please contact BlueSky at support@bsky.app.

How we keep your data secure?

The security of your data is important to us and we follow a range of technical and organisational measures to control and safeguard the use of your information. These include but are not limited to controlling access to the channels so in this instance, staff authorised to process data is limited to those required to do so in the performance of their duties e.g. Marketing, IT Support; training of staff on data protection, to include data management and the required controls in place; regular audits of our means of work to ensure that our measures remain appropriate and are complied with.

Retention Period

Public messages posted to our various social media forums, which includes entries to competition we run, are viewable and can be searchable by anyone. These are not deleted by us, unless the content is not in accordance with generally accepted standards of use e.g. contains spam, contains content that may be deemed offensive or threatening etc.

Direct Messages sent to us directly via social media channels are deleted at least 12 months after the enquiry has been responded to by us and no other grounds exist that warrant an extension of retention of such messages.

We do not use these channels to actively seek personally identifiable information and to protect your privacy, encourage users to not provide identifying details or sensitive information in comments to the sites or messages to us. You should not include any bank account details, financial information or other sensitive information in any content you post on our social media accounts. We would encourage you to review your privacy settings before you post.

We have no control over the storage duration of your data that is stored by the social media operators for their own purposes. Please refer to their privacy policies for further details.

Transfers to Third Countries

We process data within the EEA. Should we require to transfer data outside of the EEA, we will take legally required steps (to include the use of Standard Contractual Clauses) to make sure that appropriate safeguards are in place to protect your personal information.

Please note that the use of the social media platforms may also involve data processing operations of the platform to third countries such as the USA and who in such instances, rely on legal provisions such as European Commission's adequacy decisions on countries outside the EEA for data transfer and model contract clauses. Please refer to their privacy policies for further details.

Updates to this notice

We will make changes to this notice from time to time, particularly when we change how we use your information, and change our technology and products. You can always find an up-to-date version of this notice on our website at www.hsscu.ie or you can ask us for a copy

Your Rights in connection with your Personal Data:

To find out whether we hold any of your personal data and if we do to request access to that data by being furnished a copy of that data. You are also entitled to request further information about the processing.

Request correction of the personal data that we hold about you. This enables you to have any incomplete or inaccurate information we hold about you rectified.

Request erasure of your personal information. This enables you to ask us to delete or remove personal data where there is no good reason for us continuing to process it. You also have the right to ask us to delete or remove your personal data where you have exercised your right to object to processing (see below).

Object to processing of your personal data where we are relying on a legitimate interest (or those of a third party) and there is something about your particular situation which makes you want to object to processing on this ground. You also have the right to object where we are processing your personal data for direct marketing purposes.

Request the restriction of processing of your personal information. You can ask us to suspend processing personal data about you, in certain circumstances.

Where we are processing your data based solely on your consent you have a right to withdraw that consent at any time and free of charge.

Request that we: a) provide you with a copy of any relevant personal data in a reusable format; or b) request that we transfer your relevant personal data to another controller where it's technically feasible to do so.

'Relevant personal data' is personal data that: You have provided to us or which is generated by your use of our service, which is processed by automated means and where the basis that we process it is on your consent or on a contract that you have entered into with us.

Please note that the above rights are not always absolute and there may be some limitations

Exercising Your Rights

If you want access and/ or copies of any of your personal data or if you want to review, verify, correct or request erasure of your personal information, object to the processing of your personal data, or request that we send you or a third party a copy your relevant personal data in a reusable format, please contact our Data Protection Officer in writing using their contact details set out at the beginning of this document. (In some instances, depending on the nature of your request, we may have to forward your request to the relevant social media provider as set out earlier in this document. We will advise you if this is the case).

You can also exercise your rights by calling into your local branch or telephoning us on 0818 677864.

There is no fee in using any of your above rights, unless your request for access is clearly unfounded or excessive. We also reserve the right to refuse to comply with the request in such circumstances.

We may need to verify your identity if we have reasonable doubts as to who you are. This is another appropriate security measure to ensure that personal data is not disclosed to any person who has no right to receive it.

Ensuring our information is up to date and accurate We want the service provided by us to meet your expectations at all times. Please help us by telling us straightaway if there are any changes to your personal information.

Making a Complaint

If you have a complaint about the use of your personal information, please let a member of staff in your branch know, giving them the opportunity to put things right as quickly as possible. If you wish to make a complaint you may do so in person, by telephone, in writing and by email. Please be assured that all complaints received will be fully investigated.

You have a right to complain to the Data Protection Commission (DPC) in respect of any processing of your data by:
